Your Invitation

There are only a few days in life that are truly special.

On those days,
you deserve to look and feel extraordinary.

You want the magic of the occasion to be matched by a magical place.

A setting that prepares you for the moment,
where every detail
reflects the importance of the day.

Where your guests are amazed by the experience and where you arrive looking and feeling your absolute best.

At Hemingford Park,
that is exactly what we will create for you.

This is your invitation to something truly exceptional.

The Hall

Hemingford Park Hall is a refined English country house set within 72 acres of peaceful parkland near Cambridge.

Designed in 1842 by Decimus Burton, the Hall retains its classical proportions and quiet sense of permanence.

The Estate

A long drive through the grounds leads you to the Hall, announcing your arrival at the estate.

Open parkland extends in every direction.

The setting is private, composed, and quietly removed from the outside world.

An English landscape — calm and understated.

Staying at the Park

Hemingford Park Hall and its estate cottages accommodate you and your closest guests in pure English country house luxury.

The Wellness Centre

Within the Hall and its spa facilities, the Wellness Centre offers a calm, private environment dedicated to preparation and restoration.

Indulge in treatments and therapies so you arrive at your celebration looking and feeling your absolute best.

Your Wedding at the Park

Your wedding at the Park can unfold across several days.

The estate is always reserved exclusively for you.

Guests gather across the estate, within the Hall, gardens or the Orangery.

This is your country house wedding, uninterrupted.

Your Big Day

The morning unfolds at your own pace.

Preparation takes place across the estate —
in dressing rooms, salons and quiet spaces overlooking the gardens.

Hair, make-up and final details come together in a setting that feels calm and unhurried.

Your Ceremony

Your ceremony. Your choice.

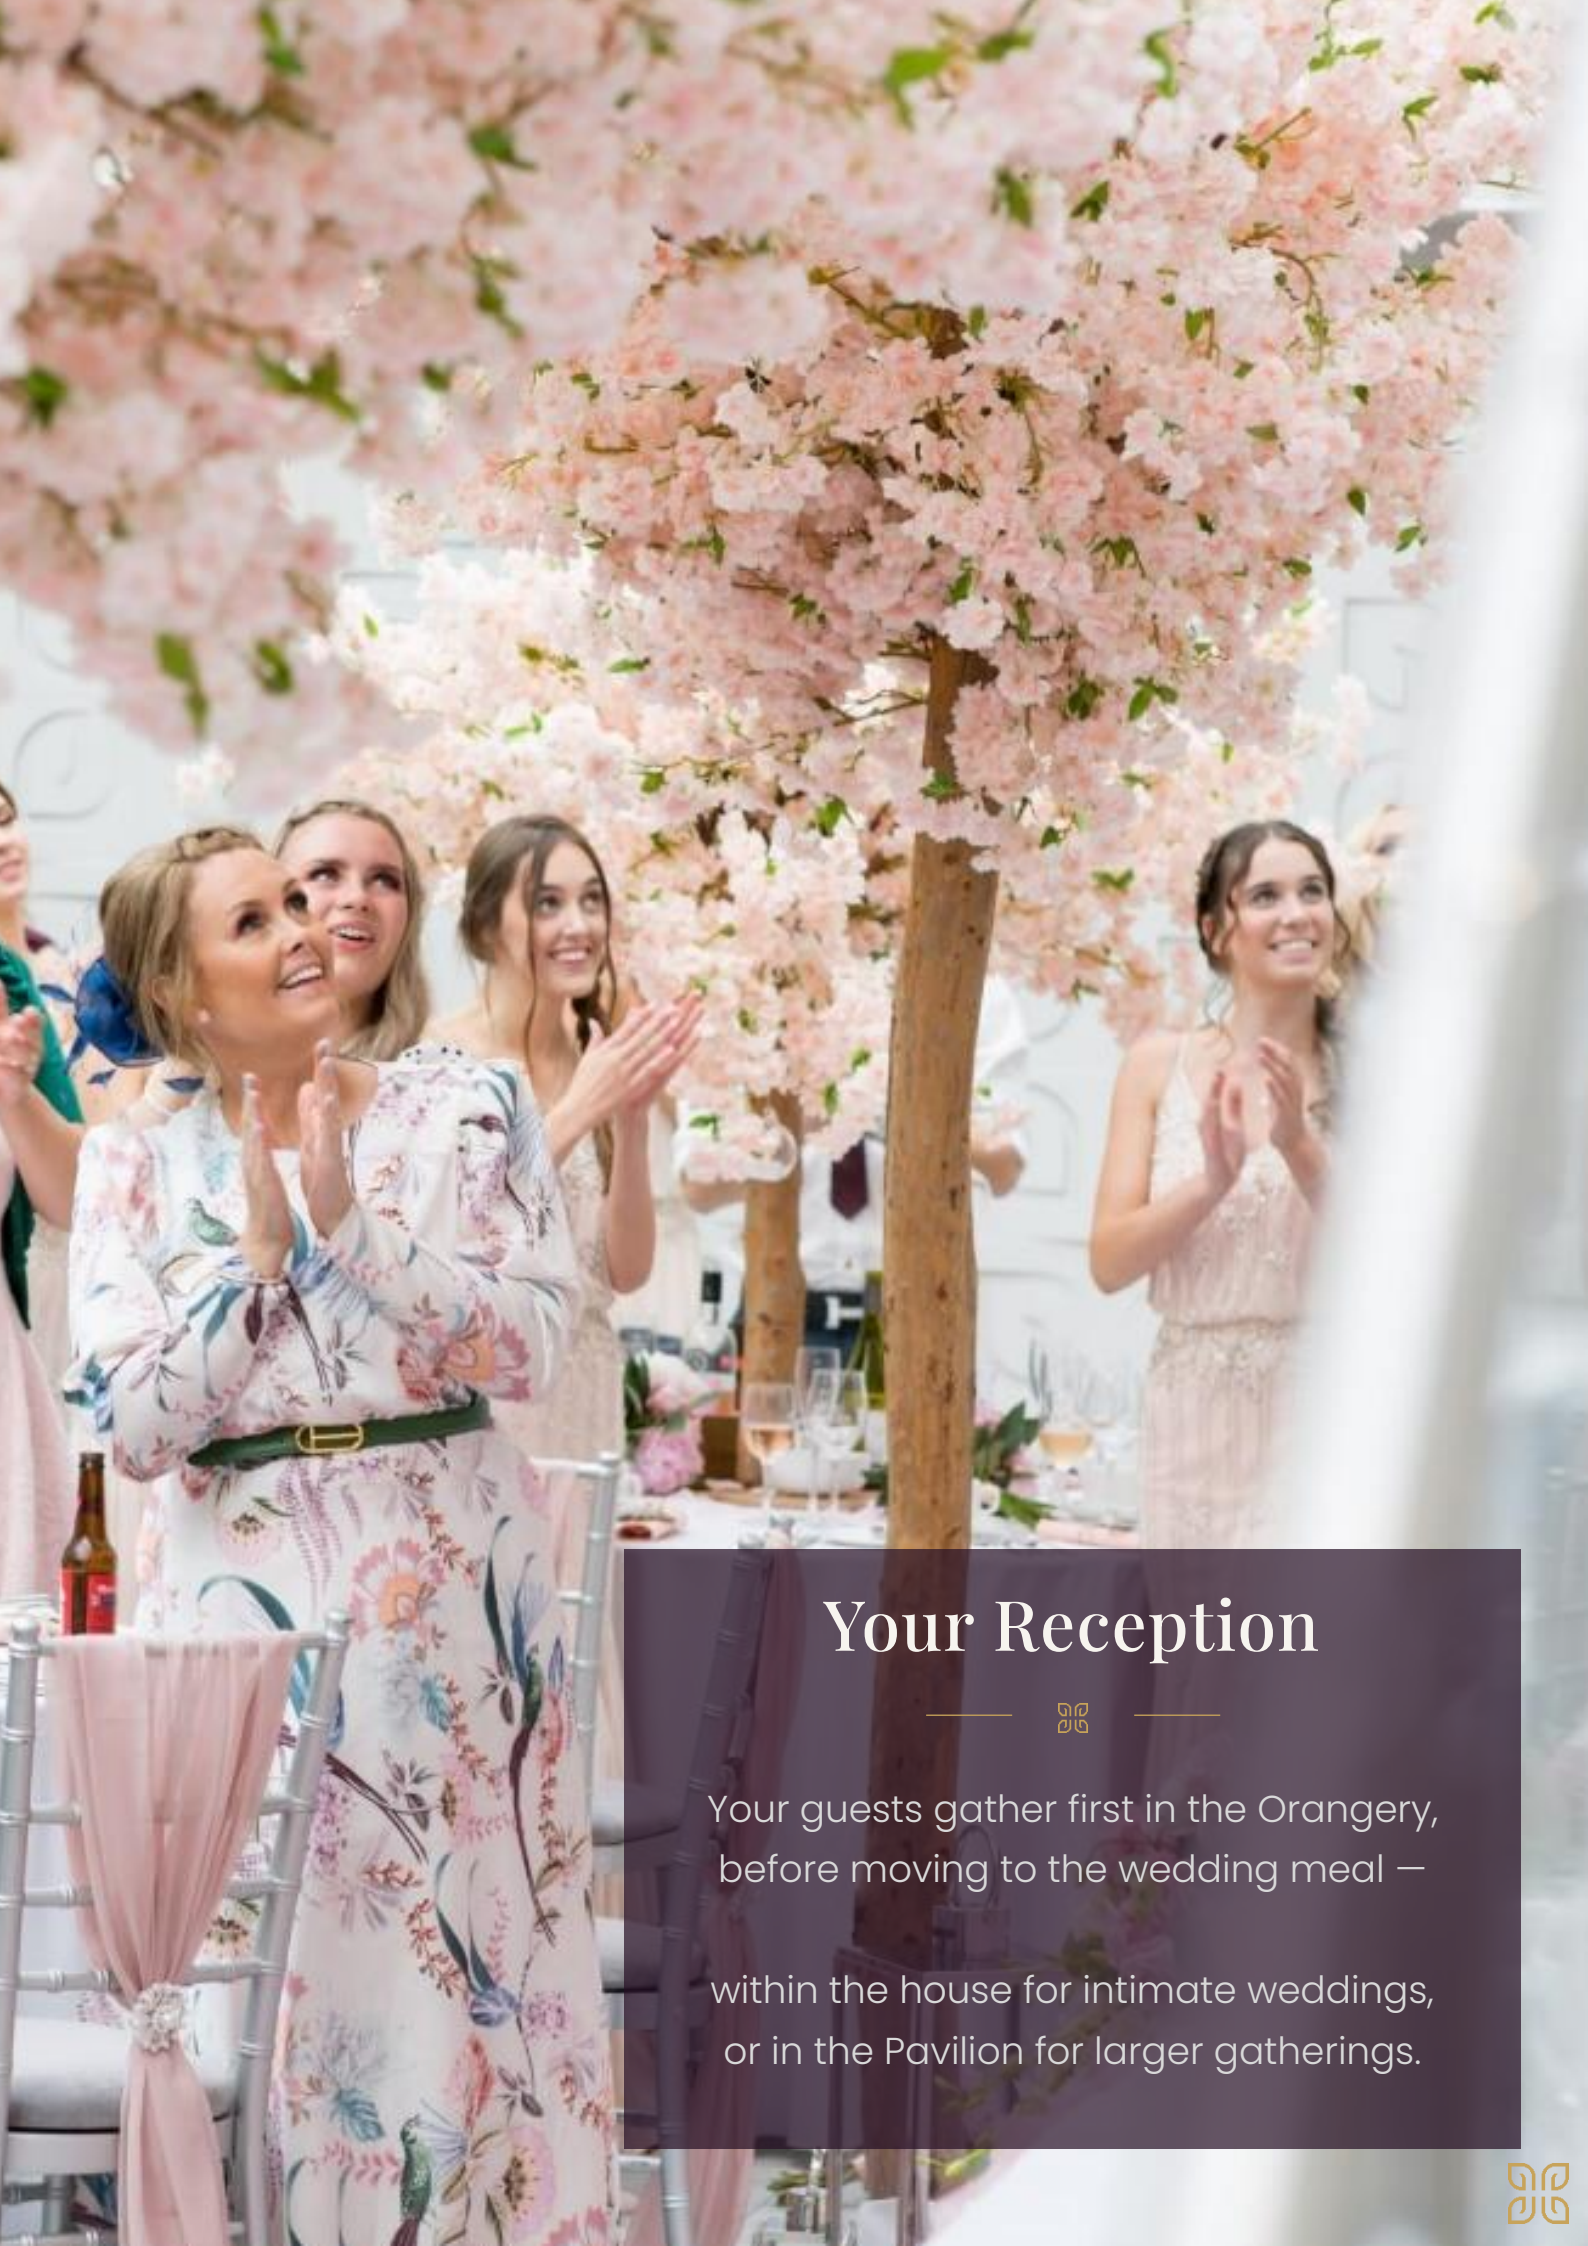

Most choose the front terrace,
before the house and lawns.

For an intimate wedding, inside
the Hall offers a beautiful setting.

For a larger indoor ceremony,
the Pavilion is perfect.

One estate. Several settings.

Your Reception

Your guests gather first in the Orangery, before moving to the wedding meal — within the house for intimate weddings, or in the Pavilion for larger gatherings.

Your Celebration

As the day moves into evening,
the atmosphere shifts.

The estate comes alive with conversation, music and celebration.

A wonderful evening — shared together.

Beyond the Estate

Just twenty minutes away lies the timeless city of Cambridge.

Explore the historic colleges, enjoy punting along the River Cam or dine in the city's restaurants.

Further east lies Newmarket, the historic centre of British horse racing.

Experience the famous gallops or visit the National Stud.

Or simply take a short walk to our local village pub, the Axe & Compass.
