

A Private English House for Intimate Celebrations

Near Cambridge • Exclusive Use • Up to 18 Guests

Your Invitation

There are only a few days
in life that truly matter.

Some are shared widely.

Others, more quietly —
with only the people who matter the most.

This is your invitation to celebrate,
in a way that feels
entirely your own.

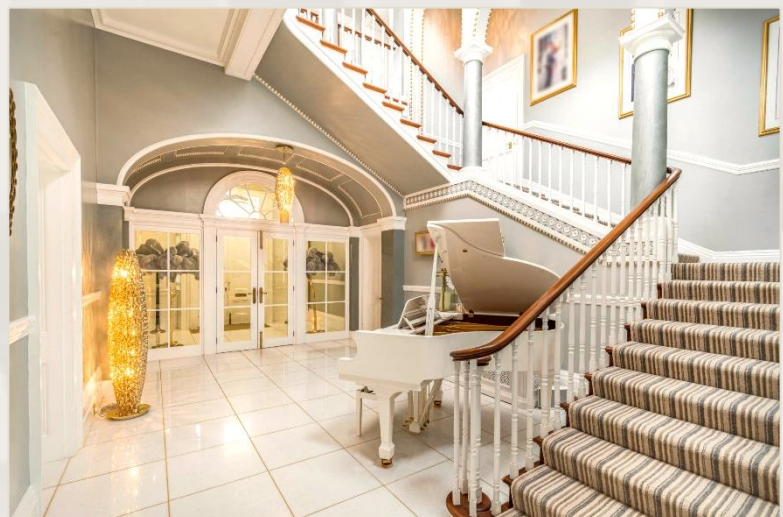

The Hall

Hemingford Park Hall is an elegant English country house within 72 acres of peaceful parkland near Cambridge.

Built in 1842 it retains a quiet sense of permanence — and the feeling that, for a few days, it is entirely yours.

The Estate

A long drive through the grounds leads you to the Hall,
announcing your arrival at the estate.

Parkland extends in every direction.

The setting is private, composed,
and quietly removed from the outside world.

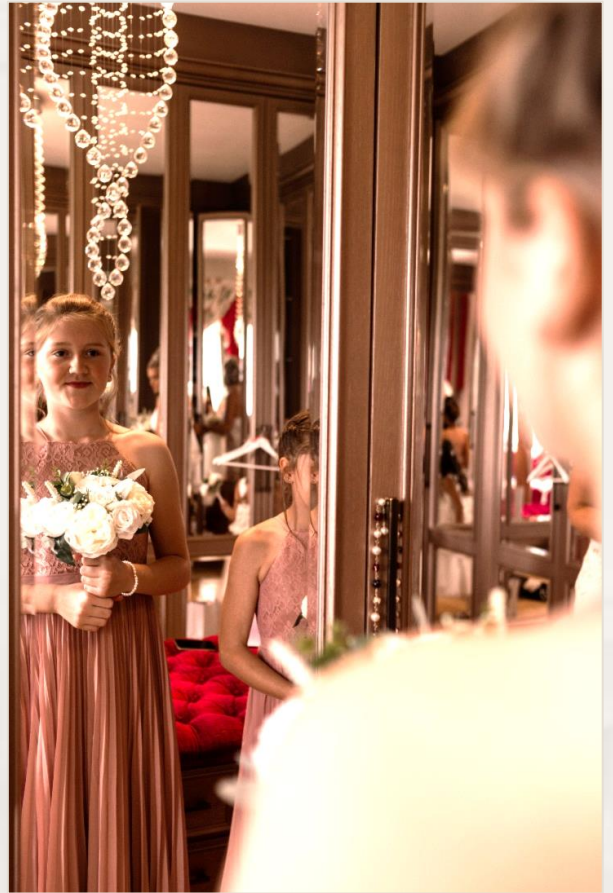

An English landscape — calm and understated.

Preparation

Preparation takes place in dressing rooms, salons and quiet spaces overlooking the gardens.

Hair, make-up and final details come together in a calm and unhurried atmosphere.

The Moment

At the centre of your time here,
there is your moment.

For some, it is a ceremony.

For others, something more private:
just a few words, a speech.

Choose the terrace,
with the house behind
and the parkland beyond —
calm, beautiful,
and quietly watching on.

Or remain inside,
where the setting feels more intimate still —
an elegant, timeless house,
shaped by the countless celebrations
held in its time.

Simply choose what feels right.

The Evening

As the light begins to fade,
everyone comes together for dinner
in the Hall's dining room.

One group of family and friends.

Drinks are poured and music begins.

Conversation settles into an easy rhythm —
unhurried, uninterrupted.

And as the evening deepens,
the formality of the day softens
into something more relaxed
and personal.

There is laughter and the sense of being exactly where you should be —
with the people who matter most.

Staying Together

Up to 18 guests can sleep
at Hemingford Park Hall and its estate cottages
in a refined English country house setting,
allowing everyone to stay,
dine and celebrate together —
and remain within it a little longer.

Time to Unwind

Within the Hall and its spa spaces,
time is set aside for rest and restoration.

Hemingford Park's Wellness Centre
is a private, considered experience —

calm, unhurried, and entirely your own.

The Experience

A celebration here is rarely
just a single day.

It is time together —
to arrive, settle, prepare and celebrate.

Just a small group, in one place,
for as long as needed.

Beyond the Estate

Twenty minutes away lies the timeless city of Cambridge, where you can explore the historic colleges, enjoy punting along the River Cam or dine in the city's restaurants.

Further east is Newmarket, the historic centre of British horse racing.

Experience the famous gallops or visit the National Stud.

Or simply take a short walk to our local village pub, the Axe & Compass.
